Andrew J. Beltz
Andrew J. Beltz, a well known retired business man of Alliance, O., died at his home in that city on Thursday night of last week. Death was due to a complication of diseases. Mr. Beltz was 78 years of age and until February 1 of the present year had continued in active work, at that time selling his store in Limaville to his nephew, S. E. Darr, and retiring from the business world. He was born near Buffalo Mills, this county, on October 14, 1841. Throughout the Civil War he served in the Union ranks, Quartermaster's corps, but was never an enlisted soldier. Following the Civil War he went to Limaville riding horseback from this county. There he purchased a wagon and began work of merchandising in this small way. Surviving are his aged wife, two daughters and two granddaughters; also one brother, Dr. D. E. Beltz, of Ligonier, and four half-brothers and one half-sister: John and Adam Beltz, of North Tonawanda, N. Y., Solomon and Lewis, of Limaville, O., and Mrs. Hannah Comp, of Barberton, O. The funeral service was conducted at his late home on Sunday afternoon and interment was made in the Alliance cemetery.

Mrs. Matilda Beltz
Mrs. Matilda Beltz, wife of the late Lewis Beltz of Buffalo Mills, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hannah Comp at Barberton, O., on September 19, aged 76 years, seven months and 27 days. Her husband preceded her to the spirit world about four years ago and after his death she made her home with her daughter. Five children and four step-children survive her.
The remains were brought to Buffalo Mills on Tuesday, and services held in St. James church on Dry Ridge, where she had been a devoted member for many years, conducted by Rev. J. W. Wright of Bedford in the presence of a very large gathering of sympathizing relatives and friends. Many bear testimony to the high esteem in which she was held by the church and community.

In an all-service wedding, Miss Jean Marlan Beltz, yeoman, third class, with the WAVES attached to the United States Navy and now stationed at the Fleet Postoffice, New York City, became the bride of Donald H. Pfeifer, private first class, with the United States Marine Corps, at 5 p. m., Saturday, in the Limaville Methodist Church. June 10, 1944

Rev. O. O. Willson, pastor of the church, officiated in a double ring service solemnized before the immediate families of the couple. Both the bride and bridegroom wore their regulation service uniforms. Attendants were Miss Lois Beltz, one of the bride's twin sisters dressed in pink silk jersey with a corsage of yellow roses, and Robert Pfeifer, brother of the bridegroom. Both mothers of the couple were in blue attire.

Private and Mrs. Pfeifer are on a honeymoon trip from which they will return to this city before the bride must report to her headquarters on Thursday.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Beltz of Limaville, Mrs. Pfeifer was graduated from Alliance High School and attended Mount Union College. She was an inspector for the Babcock and Wilcox Company at the time of her enlistment in the WAVES August 12, 1943.

Private First Class Donald H. Pfeifer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Pfeifer of Limaville and just returned to the United States to have headquarters at the Base Hospital, San Diego, Calif., after a month's furlough.

During his 22 months in the Southwest Pacific war area, Private Pfeifer saw active service with the Marine Corps on Wallis Island and in the Marshall Islands where he participated in battle against the Japanese. His corps has citations

RIN # 1498

Andrew J. Beltz
Andrew J. Beltz, a well known retired business man of Alliance, O., died at his home in that city on Thursday night of last week. Death was due to a complication of diseases. Mr. Beltz was 78 years of age and until February 1 of the present year had continued in active work, at that time selling his store in Limaville to his nephew, S. E. Darr, and retiring from the business world. He was born near Buffalo Mills, this county, on October 14, 1841. Throughout the Civil War he served in the Union ranks, Quartermaster's corps, but was never an enlisted soldier. Following the Civil War he went to Limaville riding horseback from this county. There he purchased a wagon and began work of merchandising in this small way. Surviving are his aged wife, two daughters and two granddaughters; also one brother, Dr. D. E. Beltz, of Ligonier, and four half-brothers and one half-sister: John and Adam Beltz, of North Tonawanda, N. Y., Solomon and Lewis, of Limaville, O., and Mrs. Hannah Comp, of Barberton, O. The funeral service was conducted at his late home on Sunday afternoon and interment was made in the Alliance cemetery.
